Please read the following restrictions regarding use of federal financial assistance programs. If you understand them fully and agree to them, sign the end of this document.

SBA is required to withhold or limit financial assistance, to impose special conditions on approved loans, to provide special notices to applicants or borrowers and to require special reports and data from borrowers in order to comply with legislation passed by the Congress and Executive Orders issued by the President and by the provisions of various inter-agency agreements. SBA has issued regulations and procedures that implement these laws and executive orders. These are contained in Parts 112, 113, and 117 of Title 13 of the Code of Federal Regulations and in Standard Operating Procedures.

Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552)

This law provides, with some exceptions, that SBA must supply information reflected in agency files and records to a person requesting it. Information about approved loans that will be automatically released includes, among other things, statistics on our loan programs (individual borrowers are not identified in the statistics) and other information such as the names of the borrowers (and their officers, directors, stockholders or partners), the collateral pledged to secure the loan, the amount of the loan, its purpose in general terms and the maturity. Proprietary data on a borrower would not routinely be made available to third parties. All requests under this Act are to be addressed to the nearest SBA office and be identified as a Freedom of Information request.

Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a)

A person can request to see or get copies of any personal information that SBA has in his or her file when that file is retrievable by individual identifiers such as name or social security numbers. Requests for information about another party may be denied unless SBA has the written permission of the individual to release the information to the requestor or unless the information is subject to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act.

Under the provisions of the Privacy Act, you are not required to provide your social security number. Failure to provide your social security number may not affect any right, benefit or privilege to which you are entitled. Disclosures of name and other personal identifiers are, however, required for a benefit, as SBA requires an individual seeking assistance from SBA to provide it with sufficient information for it to make a character determination. In determining whether an individual is of good character, SBA considers the person's integrity, candor, and disposition toward criminal actions. In making loans pursuant to section 7(a)(6) of the Small Business Act (the Act), 15 USC Section 636(a)(6), SBA is required to have reasonable assurance that the loan is of sound value and will be repaid or that it is in the best interest of the Government to grant the assistance requested. Additionally, SBA is specifically authorized to verify your criminal history, or lack thereof, pursuant to section 7(a)(1)(B), 15 USC Section 636(a)(1)(B). Further, for all forms of assistance, SBA is authorized to make all investigations necessary to ensure that a person has not engaged in acts that violate or will violate the Act or the Small Business Investment Act, 15 USC Sections 634(b)(11) and 687(b)(a). For these purposes, you are asked to voluntarily provide your social security number to assist SBA in making a character determination and to distinguish you from other individuals with the same or similar name or other personal identifier.

The Privacy Act authorizes SBA to make certain "routine uses" of information protected by that Act. One such routine use for SBA's loan system of records is that when this information indicates a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or administrative in nature, SBA may refer it to the appropriate agency, whether Federal, State, local or foreign, charged with responsibility for or otherwise involved in investigation, prosecution, enforcement or prevention of such violations. Another routine use of personal information is to assist in obtaining credit bureau reports, including business credit reports on the small business borrower and consumer credit reports and scores on the principals of the small business and guarantors on the loan for purposes of originating, servicing, and liquidating small business loans and for purposes of routine periodic loan portfolio management and lender monitoring. See, 69 F.R. 58598, 58617 (and as amended from time to time) for additional background and other routine uses.

Flood Disaster Protection Act (42 U.S.C. 4011) -- Regulations have been issued by the Federal Insurance Administration (FIA) and by SBA implementing this Act and its amendments. These regulations prohibit SBA from making certain loans in an FIA designated floodplain unless Federal Flood insurance is purchased as a condition of the loan. Failure to maintain the required level of flood insurance makes the applicant ineligible for any financial assistance from SBA, including disaster assistance.

Executive Orders -- Floodplain Management and Wetland Protection (42 F.R. 26951 and 42 F.R. 26961) -- SBA discourages settlement in or development of a floodplain or a wetland. This statement is to notify all SBA loan applicants that such actions are hazardous to both life and property and should be avoided. The additional cost of flood preventive construction must be considered in addition to the possible loss of all assets and investments due to a future flood.

Occupational Safety and Health Act (15 U.S.C. 651 et seq.) -- This legislation authorizes the Occupational Safety and Health Administration in the Department of Labor to require businesses to modify facilities and procedures to protect employees or pay penalty fees. Businesses can be forced to cease operations or be prevented from starting operations in a new facility. Therefore, SBA may require additional information from an applicant to determine whether the business will be in compliance with OSHA regulations and allowed to operate its facility after the loan is approved and disbursed. Signing this form as an applicant is certification that the OSHA requirements that apply to the applicant business have been determined and that the applicant, to the best of its knowledge, is in compliance. Furthermore, applicant certifies that it will remain in compliance during the life of the loan.

Civil Rights Legislation -- All businesses receiving SBA financial assistance must agree not to discriminate in any business practice, including employment practices and services to the public on the basis of categories cited in 13 C.F.R., Parts 112, 113, and 117 of SBA Regulations. This includes making their goods and services available to handicapped clients or customers. All business borrowers will be required to display the "Equal Employment Opportunity Poster" prescribed by SBA.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act (15 U.S.C. 1691) -- The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

Executive Order 11738 -- Environmental Protection (38 F.R. 251621) -- The Executive Order charges SBA with administering its loan programs in a manner that will result in effective enforcement of the Clean Air Act, the Federal Water Pollution Act and other environment protection legislation.

Debt Collection Act of 1982, Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (31 U.S.C. 3701 et seq. and other titles) -- These laws require SBA to collect aggressively any loan payments which become delinquent. SBA must obtain your taxpayer identification number when you apply for a loan. If you receive a loan, and do not make payments as they come due, SBA may take one or more of the following actions: (1) report the status of your loan(s) to credit bureaus, (2) hire a collection agency to collect your loan, (3) offset your income tax refund or other amounts due to you from the Federal Government, (4) suspend or debar you or your company from doing business with the Federal Government, (5) refer your loan to the Department of Justice or other attorneys for litigation, or (6) foreclose on collateral or take other action permitted in the loan instruments.

Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L. 99-603) -- If you are an alien who was in this country illegally since before January 1, 1982, you may have been granted lawful temporary resident status by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. For five years from the date you are granted such status, you are not eligible for financial assistance from the SBA in the form of a loan guaranty under Section 7(a) of the Small Business Act unless you are disabled or a Cuban or Haitian entrant. When you sign this document, you are making the certification that the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 does not apply to you, or if it does apply, more than five years have elapsed since you have been granted lawful temporary resident status pursuant to such 1986 legislation.

Lead-based Paint Poisoning Prevention Act (42 U.S.C. 4821 et seq.) -- Borrowers using SBA funds for the construction or rehabilitation of a residential structure are prohibited from using lead-based paint (as defined in SBA regulations) on all interior surfaces, whether accessible or not, and exterior surfaces, such as stairs, decks, porches, railing, window and doors, which are readily accessible to children under 7 years of age. A "residential structure" is a ny home, a partment, hotel, motel, orphanage, boarding school, dormitory, day care center, extended care facility, college or other school housing, hospital, group practice or community facility and all other residential or institutions structure where persons reside.

Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3401) -- This is notice to you as required by the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, of SBA's access rights to financial records held by financial institutions that are or have been doing business with you or your business, including any financial institutions participating in a loan or loan guaranty. The law provides that SBA shall have a right of access to your financial records in connection with its consideration or administration of assistance to you in the form of a Government guaranteed loan. SBA is required to provide a certificate of its compliance with the Act to a financial institution in connection with its first request for access to your financial records, after which no further certification is required for subsequent accesses. The law also provides that SBA's access rights continue for the term of any approved loan guaranty agreement. No further notice to you of SBA's access rights is required during the term of any such agreement. The law also authorizes SBA to transfer to another Government authority any financial records included in a application for a loan, or concerning an approved loan or loan guarantee, as necessary to process, service or foreclose on a loan guaranty or collect on a defaulted loan guaranty.

I have read the items above and I understand them. I agree to comply, whenever applicable, with the hazard insurance, lead-based paint, civil rights or other limitations in this notice. I agree that all SBA loan proceeds will be used only for business related purposes as specified in the loan application and, to the extent feasible, to purchase only American-made equipment and products. I realize that the penalty for knowingly making a false statement or overvaluing security to obtain a guaranteed loan from SBA is that I may be fined up to $10,000 and/or be put in jail for up to 5 years under 18 USC §1001 and if submitted to a Federally insured institution, I may be fined up to $1,000,000 and/or be put in jail for up to 20 years under 18 USC §1014. I authorize the SBA Office of Inspector General to request criminal record information about me from criminal justice agencies for the purpose of determining my eligibility for programs authorized by the Small Business Act, as amended.

I certify that the information provided in this application and supporting documents is true and accurate. I realize that the penalty for knowingly making a false statement or overvaluing security to obtain a guaranteed loan from SBA is that I may be fined up to $10,000 and/or be put in jail for up to 5 years under 18 USC §1001 and if submitted to a Federally insured institution, I may be fined up to $1,000,000 and/or be put in jail for up to 20 years under 18 USC §1014.

If Borrower does not prepay within 30 days from the date Lender receives notice, Borrower must give Lender a new notice. Principal prepaid will not be readvanced. If the Guaranty Section of this Promissory Note is completed and signed this Promissory Note is also guaranteed by the Guarantor(s) named therein.

The Borrower and all other persons who may become liable for the payment hereof severally waive demand, presentment, protest, notice of dishonor or nonpayment, notice of protest, and any and all lack of diligence or delays in collection which may occur, and expressly consent and agree to each and any extension or postponement of time of payment hereof from time to time at or after maturity or other indulgence, and waive all notice thereof.

The Promissory Note is made and executed under, and is in all respects governed by, the laws of the State of California.

Late Charge: If a payment on this Note is more than 10 days late, Lender may charge Borrower a late fee of up to 5% of the unpaid portion of the regularly scheduled payment.

Security Interest – Borrower and Guarantor(s)

Borrower, and any Guarantor(s) of this Promissory Note signing the Guaranty Section below, acknowledge that all documents submitted in conjunction with this agreement are being submitted in order to induce a federally licensed lender to extend credit and that submission of any false information herein may subject Borrower, Guarantor(s) or their principals to criminal prosecution, fine and/or imprisonment. To secure Borrower's performance under this agreement, and such Guarantor(s)' performance under any Guaranty hereof, Borrower and Guarantor(s) hereby grant pursuant to the California Uniform Commercial Code, to Lender a security interest in Borrower's and any and all Guarantor(s)' deposit accounts, regardless of source, wherever found, standing in the name of Borrower or Guarantor(s), including any affiliated companies of Borrower or Guarantor(s) whether established or designated and maintained pursuant to this agreement or not, as well as in the proceeds of those deposits. In the event of default under this agreement, Borrower and Guarantor(s) stipulate (i) that all personal bank accounts standing in their names shall be subject to this agreement and ACH debit and (ii) all ACH debits, whether made against Borrower's account or Guarantor(s) personal accounts, shall bear a commercial account code designation (CCD) for purposes of electronic collection via the ACH system, and (iii) Borrower and/or Guarantor(s) irrevocably consent to Lender using any means available to locate such deposit accounts until such time as all amounts that are due have been satisfied.

Lender may enforce this security interest as applicable by:

- Making immediate debit/charge via the ACH system (Code CCD) to any deposit account standing in the name in or names of Borrower and/or Guarantor(s) without notice or demand of any kind; and/or interrupting the electronic transmission of funds to any account through the Automated Clearing House (ACH) system;
- Immediately debit any credit card account standing in the name or names of Borrower and/or Guarantor(s) without notice or demand of any kind;
- Freezing any of said accounts, without notice or demand of any kind, upon Lender's determination that the customer has breached any term of this agreement;
- Placing a receiver within Borrower's place of business without notice or bond to intercept and collect all income derived from customer's operation until such time as any indebtedness owed to bank arising under this agreement has been satisfied in full;
- Obtaining either a writ of attachment or a writ of possession without bond pertaining to Borrower and/or Guarantor(s)' personal property upon a showing of a presumption that customer has committed an act of fraud or is about to misappropriate funds to which it is not entitled. Borrower and Guarantor(s) shall provide any statement or notice that Lender determines to be necessary to preserve and protect this security interest. Borrower and/or Guarantor(s)' granting of this security interest in no way limits Borrower's liabilities to Lender under this agreement;
- Filing any financing statement, notice or claim as Lender may deem appropriate to perfect or enforce the security interest granted hereunder.

Events of Default

Borrower and/or Guarantor(s) shall be in default if Borrower and/or Guarantor(s) fail timely to observe and perform any covenants, conditions, requirements and agreements required to be observed or performed by Borrower or Guarantor(s) under this agreement, or in the event of the suspension of Borrower's business, insolvency, assignment for the benefit of creditors, filing or adjudication of bankruptcy, or appointment of a receiver of or against the Borrower (an "Event of Default").

Remedies upon Event of Default

At any time upon or following the occurrence of one or more of the Events of Default, Lender may, at its option, assert or avail itself of any one or more of the rights, powers, remedies and defenses conferred upon Lender under the laws of the State of California, including the Uniform Commercial Code, which laws shall generally govern the construction and interpretation of this agreement, or assert or avail itself of any one or more of the rights, powers, remedies and defenses conferred upon Lender under any other appropriate law or regulation, whether federal or state.

This agreement is the authorization required by N.A.C.H.A. to process ACH debits for obligations under this agreement for purposes of any kind and all financial institutions (RDFI's). In addition, this agreement is also the authorization required by Visa USA or Mastercard International to process payments or a payoff so long as the loan is not considered to be in collection.

This Promissory Note, together with any loan, security agreements or other instruments executed concurrently herewith constitutes the complete agreement of the parties respecting the credit extended to Borrower and supercedes any prior agreements, written or oral. This Guaranty will not be discharged or affected by the death of the Guarantor(s), will bind all heirs, administrators, representatives and assigns and may be enforced by or for the benefit of any successor Lender. Guarantor(s) understand that the inducement to Lender to extend credit to Borrower hereunder is consideration for this Guaranty, and that this Guaranty remains in full force and effect even if the Guarantor(s) receive no additional benefit from the Guaranty. This Guaranty is a payment guarantee and not a guarantee of collection only.

If Guarantor(s) elect to revoke this Guaranty, Guarantor(s) may only do so in writing. Guarantor(s) written notice of revocation must be mailed to Lender, by certified mail, at Lender's address listed above or such other place as Lender may designate in writing. Written revocation of this Guaranty will apply only to advances new Indebtedness created after actual receipt by Lender of Guarantor(s) written revocation. For this purpose and without limitation, the term "new Indebtedness" does not include Indebtedness which at the time of notice of revocation is contingent, unliquidated, undetermined or not due and which later becomes absolute, liquidated, determined or due. This Guaranty will continue to bind Guarantor(s) for all Indebtedness incurred by Borrower or committed by Lender prior to receipt of Guarantor(s)' written notice of revocation, including any extensions, renewals, substitutions or modifications of the Indebtedness. All renewals, extensions, substitutions, and modifications of the Indebtedness granted after Guarantor(s)' revocation, are contemplated under this Guaranty and, specifically will not be considered to be new Indebtedness. This Guaranty shall bind Guarantor's estate as to Indebtedness created both before and after Guarantor(s)' death or incapacity, regardless of Lender's actual notice of Guarantor(s)' death. Subject to the foregoing, Guarantor(s)' executor or administrator or other legal representative may terminate this Guaranty in the same manner in which Guarantor(s) might have terminated it and with the same effect. Release of any other guarantor or termination of any other guaranty of the Indebtedness shall not affect the liability of Guarantor(s) under this Guaranty. A revocation Lender receives from any one or more Guarantor(s) shall not affect the liability of any remaining Guarantors under this Guaranty.

Obligations of Married Persons

Any married person who signs this Guaranty hereby expressly agrees that recourse under this Guaranty may be had against both his or her separate property and community property.

Guarantor(s) Authorizes to Lender

Guarantor(s) authorize Lender, either before or after any revocation hereof, without notice or demand and without lessening Guarantor(s)' liability under this Guaranty, from time to time: (A) prior to revocation as set forth above, to make one or more additional secured or unsecured loans to Borrower, to lease equipment or other goods to Borrower, or otherwise to extend additional credit to Borrower; (B) to alter, compromise, renew, extend, accelerate, or otherwise change one or more times the time for payment or other terms of the Indebtedness or any part of the Indebtedness, including increases and decreases of the rate of interest on the Indebtedness; extensions may be repeated and may be for longer than the original loan term; (C) to take and hold security for the payment of this Guaranty or the Indebtedness, and exchange, enforce, waive, subordinate, fail or decide not to perfect, and release any such security, with or without the substitution of new collateral; (D) to release, substitute, agree not to sue, or deal with any one or more of Borrowers sureties, endorsers, or other guarantors on any terms or in any manner Lender may choose; (E) to determine how, when and what application -of payments and credits shall be made on the Indebtedness (F) to apply such security and direct the order or manner of sale thereof, including without limitation, any nonjudicial sale permitted by the terms of the controlling security agreement or deed of trust, as Lender in its discretion may determine; (G) to sell, transfer, assign or grant participations in all or any part of the Indebtedness; and (H) to assign or transfer this Guaranty in whole or in part.

Guarantor(s) Representations and Warranties

Guarantor(s) represent and warrant to Lender that (A) no representations or agreements of any kind have been made to Guarantor(s) which would limit or qualify in any way the terms of this Guaranty; (B) this Guaranty is executed at Borrower's request and not at the request of Lender; (C) Guarantor(s) have full power, right and authority to enter into this Guaranty; (D) the provisions of this Guaranty do not conflict with or result in a default under any agreement or other instrument binding upon Guarantor(s) and do not result in a violation of any law, regulation, court decree or order applicable to Guarantor(s); (E) Guarantor(s) have not and will not, without the prior written consent of Lender, sell, lease, assign, encumber, hypothecate, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of Guarantor(s)' assets, or any interest therein; (F) upon Lender's request, Guarantor(s) will provide to Lender financial and credit information in form acceptable to Lender, and all such financial information which currently has been, and all future financial information which will be provided to Lender is and will be true and correct in all material respects and fairly present Guarantor(s) financial condition as of the dates the financial information is provided; (G) Lender has made no representation to Guarantor(s) as to the creditworthiness of Borrower, and (H) Guarantor(s) have established adequate means of obtaining from Borrower on a continuing basis information regarding Borrowers financial condition. Guarantor(s) agree to keep adequately informed from such means of any facts, events, or circumstances which might in any way affect Guarantor(s)' risks under this Guaranty, and Guarantor(s) further agree that, absent a request for information, Lender shall have no obligation to disclose to Guarantor(s) any information or documents acquired by Lender in the course of its relationship with Borrower.

Guarantor(s) Waivers

Except as prohibited by applicable law, Guarantor(s) waive any right to require Lender to (A) make any presentment, protest, demand, or notice of any kind, including notice of change of any terms of repayment of the Indebtedness default by Borrower or any other guarantor or surety, any action or nonaction taken by Borrower, Lender, or any other guarantor or surety of Borrower, or the creation of new or additional Indebtedness; (B) proceed against any person, including Borrower, before proceeding against Guarantor(s); (C) proceed against any collateral for the Indebtedness, including Borrower's collateral, before proceeding against Guarantor(s); (D) apply any payments or proceeds received against the Indebtedness in any order; (E) give notice of the terms, time, and place of any sale of the collateral pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code or any other law governing such sale; (F) disclose any information about the Indebtedness, the Borrower, the collateral, or any other guarantor or surety, or about any action or nonaction of Lender; or (G) pursue any remedy or course of action in Lender's power whatsoever.

Guarantor(s) also waive any and all rights or defenses arising by reason of (H) any disability or other defense of Borrower, any other guarantor or surety or any other person; (I) the cessation from any cause whatsoever, other than payment in full, of the Indebtedness; (J) the application of proceeds of the Indebtedness by Borrower for purposes other than the purposes understood and intended by Guarantor(s) and Lender; (K) any act of omission or commission by Lender which directly or indirectly results in or contributes to the discharge of Borrower or any other guarantor or surety, or the Indebtedness, or the loss or release of any collateral by operation of law or otherwise; (L) any statute of limitations in any action under this Guaranty or on the Indebtedness; or (M) any modification or change in terms of the Indebtedness, whatsoever, including without limitation, the renewal, extension, acceleration, or other change in the time payment of the Indebtedness is due and any change in the interest rate, and including any such modification or change in terms after revocation of this Guaranty on Indebtedness incurred prior to such revocation.

Guarantor(s) waive all rights and any defenses arising out of an election of remedies by Lender even though that the election of remedies, such as a non-judicial foreclosure with respect to security for a guaranteed obligation, has destroyed Guarantor(s)' rights of subrogation and reimbursement against Borrower by operation of Section 580d of the California Code of Civil Procedure or otherwise.

Guarantor(s) waive all rights and defenses that Guarantor(s) may have because Borrower's obligation is secured by real property. This means among other things: (1) Lender may collect from Guarantor(s) without first foreclosing on any real or personal property collateral pledged by Borrower. (2) If Lender forecloses on any real property collateral pledged by Borrower: (a) the amount of Borrower's obligation may be reduced only by the price for which the collateral is sold at the foreclosure sale, even if the collateral is worth more than the sale price. (b) Lender may collect from Guarantor(s) even if Lender, by foreclosing on the real property collateral, has destroyed any right Guarantor(s) may have to collect from Borrower. This is an unconditional waiver of any rights and defenses Guarantor(s) may have because Borrower's obligation is secured by real property. These rights and defenses include, but are not limited to, any rights and defenses based upon Section 580a, 580b, 580d, or 726 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Guarantor(s) understand and agree that the foregoing waivers are waivers of substantive rights and defenses to which Guarantor(s) might otherwise be entitled under state and federal law. The rights and defenses waived include, without limitation, those provided by California laws of suretyship and guaranty, anti-deficiency laws, and the Uniform Commercial Code. Guarantor(s) acknowledge that Guarantor(s) have provided these waivers of rights and defenses with the intention that they are fully relied upon by Lender. Until all Indebtedness is paid in full, Guarantor(s) waive any right to enforce any remedy Lender may have against the Borrower or any other guarantor, surety, or other person, and further, Guarantor(s) waive any right to participate in any collateral for the Indebtedness now or hereafter held by Lender.

In addition to the waivers set forth herein, If now or hereafter Borrower is or shall become insolvent and the Indebtedness shall not at all times until paid be fully secured by collateral pledged by Borrower, Guarantor(s) hereby forever waives and gives up in favor of Lender and Borrower, and Lenders and Borrower's respective successors, any claim or right to payment Guarantor(s) may now have or hereafter have or acquire against Borrower, by subrogation or otherwise, so that at no time shall Guarantor(s) be or become a "creditor" of Borrower within the meaning of the Federal bankruptcy laws.

Right of Setoff

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Lender reserves a right of setoff in all Guarantor(s)' accounts with Lender (whether checking, savings, credit card or some other account). This includes all accounts Guarantor(s) hold jointly with someone else and all accounts Guarantor(s) may open in the future. However, this does not include any IRA or Keogh accounts, or any trust accounts for which setoff would be prohibited by law. Guarantor(s) authorize Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to hold these funds if there is a default, and Lender may apply the funds in these accounts to pay what Guarantor(s) owe under the terms of this Guaranty.

Subordination of Borrower's Debt to Guarantor(s)

Guarantor(s) agree that the Indebtedness of Borrower to Lender, whether non existing or hereafter created, shall be superior to any claim that Guarantor(s) may now have or hereafter acquire against Borrower, whether or not Borrower becomes insolvent. Guarantor(s) hereby expressly subordinate any claim Guarantor(s) may have against Borrower, upon any account whatsoever, to any claim that Lender may now or hereafter have against Borrower. In the event of insolvency and consequent liquidation of the assets of Borrower, through bankruptcy, by an assignment for the benefit of creditors, by voluntary liquidation, or otherwise, the assets of Borrower applicable to the payment of the claims of both Lender and Guarantor(s) shall be paid to Lender and shall be first applied by Lender to the Indebtedness of Borrower to Lender. Guarantor(s) hereby assign to Lender all claims which it may have or acquire against Borrower or against any assignee or trustee in bankruptcy of Borrower; provided however, that such assignment shall be effective only for the purpose of assuring to Lender full payment in legal tender of the Indebtedness. If Lender so requests, any notes or credit agreements now or hereafter evidencing any debts or obligations of Borrower to Guarantor(s) shall be marked with a legend that the same are subject to this Guaranty and shall be delivered to Lender. Guarantor(s) agree, and Lender is hereby authorized, in the name of Guarantor(s), from time to time to execute and file financing statements and continuation statements and to execute such other documents and to take such other actions as Lender deems necessary or appropriate to perfect, preserve and enforce its rights under this Guaranty.
